Dear Mr. Lawrence,

It is kind of you to keep me posted.

My camera store has located the Bell and Howell camera and is haggling wit with a woman who wants to trade but thinks it is worth the price of a new one. At some point he will pay her too much and the camera will be mine.

I have completed "Oswald In New Orleans: CIA Whitewash" and am on the other writing of the series. Although I will gomahead with what I plan with the Zapruder-duplicate, I will not want it to appear ahead of the pecper book, which is sevegal months off.

When I have made the film I told you about, I will let you know to see if you are interested.

Again, thanks for your courtesy.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
